SANTA YSABEL, CA . . .

PAINTER ADELE EARNSHAW AT SANTA YSABEL ART GALLERY

At Santa Ysabel Art Gallery, October 14 through November 12, 2017, will be Wide Spot In The Road, a one person show featuring the landscape paintings of artist Adele Earnshaw. Earnshaw is an internationally known artist and an international person, dividing her time between her residence in New Zealand and living and traveling in the United States. She paints and exhibits her work in both hemispheres, with emphasis on scenery that inspires. Opening Reception for Wide Spot in the Road will be Saturday, October 14, 4-7 PM. There is no admission. The public is invited.

Earnshaw's main interest is not in painting a literal landscape, but in capturing the feel of a place. The still pristine oak covered hills of the Santa Ysabel area are among her favorite places because of the light, which softens contours and colors, creating a mood that she can express in her paintings. She is author of the North Light book Painting the Things You Love. Opening Reception for Wide Spot in the Road will be Saturday, October 14, 4-7 PM. There is no admission. The public is invited.

Santa Ysabel Art Gallery is located at 30352 Highway 78 at Highway 79 in Santa Ysabel, seven miles below Julian. A feature of the gallery is the James Hubbell Room, where the art of Hubbell, San Diego County's internationally known artist, poet and builder of organic houses is on exhibit. Admission to the gallery is free. Gallery hours are Thursday through Monday, 11AM - 5 PM, and by appointment. The gallery is closed Tuesday and Wednesday. For more information call (760) 765-1676.
