Santa Ysabel, Ca. (May, 1995) "Into the Baja Garden," watercolors, sculptures and stained glass by James Hubbell, influenced by his travels in Baja California, will be exhibited at the Santa Ysabel Gallery, opening Saturday, June 3 with a reception to meet the artist from 4 to 8 p.m.

The exhibit continues through July 9.

Hubbell is a sculptor, painter, stained glass artist, poet, visionary and architect. His unique art work enriches the environment of San Diego and the world. He creates art that is meaningful in everyday applications such as windows, doors, gates, entire buildings and parks, unpretentious yet monumental in their statements.

Among the many public and private building commissions are the Sea Ranch Chapel at Sea Ranch; Ivy Substation and Media Park Restoration, Culver City; Preschool and Primary School in Tijuana and seven buildings comprising the Hubbell home and studio, Santa Ysabel, which will be open to the public Sunday, June 18 from noon to 5 p.m.

The Santa Ysabel Gallery is located at 30352 Highway 78, Santa Ysabel. Hours are 10 a.m., until 5 p.m., Wednesday through Tuesday. For more information, please call 765-1676.
