

Art Show: Momentum and Stasis March 2 at the Berryman Gallery, Santa Ysabel

With thanks to the Santa Ysabel Art Gallery, the sculptures of artist-in-residence Ted Berryman and the paintings of Linda Morton will be on display at the Santa Ysabel Art Gallery Annex, also known as the Berryman Art Gallery.

The show, Momentum and Stasis, begins on Saturday, March 2nd and will run through April 28th. The gallery opens at 11 am Saturday morning on March 2nd with a reception from 3-6 pm on that date. The Berryman Gallery is on the northeast corner of the intersection of Highways 78 and 79. Parking is available at the post office, just to the left of the gallery. The post office address is 21977 Highway 79 in Santa Ysabel.

Linda Morton's colorful, expressive paintings complement the intriguing and dynamic sculptures of Ted Berryman. Together, the works create an exciting tension between movement and stillness, as seen in the photos attached.

In addition to food and refreshments, the reception will feature music by Julian's own singer-guitarist Ken Wright with Lenny Bole on the banjo. The Santa Ysabel Art Gallery, just next door, will also have a reception on March 2nd from 4-7 pm, highlighting the stunning pastel plein air work of artist Margaret Larlham. The Julian Weaving Works, next to the gallery, will be open, as well.

So come, bring your friends and family, and enjoy the uplift that art, music, refreshments, and a beautiful setting can provide. Hope to see you March 2nd!
